

What is the History of History?
History 97c • Spring 2017
Wednesdays 1-4pm
DRAFT SYLLABUS

Prof. Ann Blair, amblair@fas
CGIS S437, 1730 Cambridge St
Office hours: M 2-4

and tutors Ian Kumekawa and Salmaan Mirza

Everything has a history, and the discipline of history has a particularly long and broad one. In this section we'll focus on ideas about how and why to study history and on the practices of historical research and writing as they have varied across different cultural contexts. In selected case studies we will consider who wrote and who read history, and how historians answered questions that we also ask ourselves today. E.g. What features are essential to a good historical account? Does the study of history teach moral lessons? How does history interact with memory?

The seminar will meet on Wednesdays, 1-4 pm. In weeks with tutorial meetings seminar participants are divided into tutorials of up to four students meeting either 1-2:30pm or 2:30-4pm (a second classroom will be booked for tutorial meetings held in parallel if necessary).
