

HARVARD UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
201 ROBINSON HALL • CAMBRIDGE, MA 02138

TEL (617) 495-2556/2545
FAX (617) 496-3425

Admitted Student Visiting Days
March 8 & 9

Wednesday, March 8, 2017

- 2:15 Welcome
 Prof. Alison Frank Johnson, Director of Graduate Studies
 Robinson Hall, Graduate Student Lounge
- 2:45 Tour of Harvard Yard with Graduate Coordinator, Dan Bertwell
- 4:15 Department Seminar: "The Ethics of History," Chair, Prof. David Armitage. With Prof. Ann Blair, Prof. Ian Miller, Mou Banerjee, and Prof. Annette Gordon-Reed.
 Robinson Hall, Lower Library
- 6:00 Reception
 Robinson Hall, Great Space

Small Group Dinners with Current Graduate Students, arranged by field and thematic interests.

Thursday, March 9, 2017

- 8:45 Coffee & pastries. Robinson Hall, Lower Library
- 9:00 Introduction to the Graduate Program
 Prof. Dan Smail, Chair
 Prof. Alison Frank Johnson, Director of Graduate Studies
 Robinson Hall, Lower Library
- 10:00-11:00 Meeting for students interested in African American history and the history of the African Diaspora with relevant faculty. (Runs concurrent with Faculty Meetings, faculty in attendance will also be available to meet individually with students).
 Robinson Hall, Basement Conference Room
- 10:00 Faculty meetings
- Noon Lunch
 Robinson Hall, Great Space
- 1:00-4:00 Faculty meetings
- 4:00-5:00 History Graduate Students of Color Social
 Robinson Hall, Graduate Student Lounge
- 5:00 History Graduate Student Association Gathering
 Robinson Hall, Graduate Student Lounge

Small Group Dinners with Current Graduate Students, arranged by field and thematic interests.

*Con-IH, the Annual Graduate Student Conference on International History will be held on March 9th and 10th.

Thanks to generous funding from the Gochman Dean's Fund for Innovation and Development, this year's reception will be bigger and better than ever!