

Requirements for Joint Concentration in History and AAAS (African American Studies track)

Courses (14 half-courses):

1. AFRAMER 10 (Introduction to African American Studies); Two courses in African American studies: one in humanities, one in social sciences; One course in African American pre-20th-century history (if not available, consult the AAAS DUS).
2. 6 courses of tutorials and seminars:
 - a. Sophomore tutorials: History 97 and AFRAMER 97
 - b. One History Research Seminar (ideally focused on African American History and resulting in a research paper of at least 20 pages) and AFRAMER 98A
 - c. Senior thesis tutorial: History 99 or AFRAMER 99 (full year)
3. 4 courses in History and AAAS Studies.
These must include:
 - a. one pre-1750 History course
 - b. Three African/African American history courses, of which one must be a modern African history course

AAAS FOUNDATIONAL COURSES	TUTORIALS	COURSES IN HISTORY and AAAS
1. AFRAMER 10 _____	5. History 97 _____	11. Pre-1750 history course _____
2 - 3 Two courses in African American Studies: one in humanities, one in social sciences _____ _____	6. AFRAMER 97 _____	12. course in modern African history _____
	7. AFRAMER 98A _____	13. elective in African/African American history _____
	8. History Research Seminar, Ideally in African American History (must include a 20-page paper involving primary research) _____	14. elective in African/African American history _____
4. One course in African American pre-20 th century history _____	9-10. History 99 or AFRAMER 99 (full course)
