

A supplement to the printing history of Zwinger's Theatrum (1565-1604) and Beyerlinck's Magnum Theatrum (1631-1707) presented in Ann Blair, Too Much To Know: Managing Scholarly Information Before the Modern Age (New Haven: Yale University Press, 2010), p. 197.

Updated summer 2011 with information about copies in the Zentralbibliothek Solothurn, Switzerland, with warm thanks to Ian Holt.

A survey of copies of Zwinger's Theatrum humanae vitae and Beyerlinck's Magnum Theatrum humanae vitae in on-line library catalogs carried out in 2005-6 by Morgan Sonderegger

Note: no attempt was made to verify the information in the on-line catalogs, therefore these results are likely to contain errors, but they offer a useful general view of the printing history and survival rates of these works. Notices of corrections to make are welcome.

The same location listed more than once indicates that multiple copies were found and that they had separate call numbers or some other notation confirming that they are distinct copies (as opposed to multiple volumes of the same title, or multiple listings of the same copy).

Catalogs searched (with abbreviations used): [non-European holdings listed at the end]
