Peter Gordon and John McCormick release “Weimar Thought: A Contested Legacy”

Peter Gordon, Amabel B. James Professor of History at Harvard and Davis Fellow at Princeton University in 2012-2013, has released a co-edited volume with John P. McCormick, Professor of Political Science at the University of Chicago, entitled Weimar Thought: A Contested Legacy.

With four thematic sections - on law, politics, and society; philosophy, theology, and science; aesthetics, literature, and film; and general cultural and social themes of the Weimar period - the volume brings together a remarkable array of fields, with each individual essay serving as an overview for a particular discipline while offering distinctive critical engagement with relevant problems and debates.
