Lunch and discussion with Dean Emma Dench

HGWISE

Interim Dean of Graduate School of Arts and Sciences

McLean Professor of Ancient and Modern History

When: Monday March 5th 12:00-1:00pm
Where: Dudley House (Room TBD),
Harvard University, Cambridge, MA 02138

What: Born and raised in the UK, Emma appeared in the 1968 film version of A Midsummer Night's Dream as Peaseblossom alongside her aunt, Judi Dench. She went on to earn her BA and MA from the University of Oxford. Before joining Harvard faculty in January 2007, she taught classics and ancient history at University of London. She has been a Craven Fellow at the University of Oxford, a Rome Scholar and a Hugh Last Fellow at the British School of Rome, a Cotton Fellow, a Member of the School of Historical Studies at Princeton, and a Loeb Classical Library Foundation Fellow. As a faculty at Harvard, Emma has received numerous awards including "Outstanding Contributions to Undergraduate Teaching, Mentoring and Advising", Marquand Award for Excellent Advising and Counseling, and Everett Mendelsohn Award for Excellence in Mentoring Graduate Students.

Join us for an exciting lunch to meet Emma, Dean of GSAS, and learn about her exciting life, career trajectory and perspective on women in academia.

All members of GSAS are welcome

Lunch will be provided!

RSVP: http://bit.ly/2EtdOfr

Contact: ngharaei@fas.harvard.edu