Requirements for Joint Concentration in History and AAAS (African and African American Studies track)

Courses (14 half-courses):

1. AFRAMER 10 (Introduction to African American Studies); Two courses in African American studies: one in humanities, one in social sciences; One course in African American pre-20th-century history (if not available, consult the AAAS DUS).

2. 6 courses of tutorials and seminars:
   a. Sophomore tutorials: History 97 and AFRAMER 97
   b. One History Research Seminar (ideally focused on African American History and resulting in a research paper of at least 20 pages) and AFRAMER 98
   c. Senior thesis tutorial: History 99 or AFRAMER 99 (full year)

3. 4 courses in History and AAAS Studies.
   These must include:
   a. one pre-modern History course
   b. Three African/AAAS history courses, of which one must be a modern African history course

---

AAAS FOUNDATIONAL COURSES

1. AFRAMER 10 _____

2 - 3 Two courses in African American Studies—one in humanities, one in social sciences

_____

_____

4. One course in African American pre-20th century history

_____

TUTORIALS

5. History 97_____

6. AFRAMER 97 _____

7. AFRAMER 98 _____

8. History Research Seminar, Ideally in African American History (must include a 20-page paper involving primary research)

_____

9-10. History 99 or AFRAMER 99
(full course)

COURSES IN HISTORY and AAAS

11. pre-modern history course _____

12. course in modern African history _____

13. elective in African/African American history_____

14. elective in African/African American history_____