Requirements Form for Secondary Field in History, 2018-19

REQUIREMENTS: 5 courses (20 credits)

1. One seminar: Ordinarily taken in the junior or senior year, the seminar will serve as a capstone to the secondary field by providing faculty-led instruction in a small group and requiring students to follow the stages of a research project that reflect the principles of the department's tutorial program.
2. Four additional half-courses in history: Students will be free to take any four courses in history to fulfill the bulk of the secondary field's course requirements. One of the four courses may be a historical related field course (by petition).
