The James Blair Historical Review, William & Mary's undergraduate history journal, is still accepting submissions for our Fall 2021 issue. The deadline for submissions for the Fall 2021 issue is this Friday, October 4th at 11:59. We consider papers with any historical approach and area of focus, but they must meet the requirements listed in the attached flyer.

You can submit papers via email to jbhr@email.wm.edu. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns. We look forward to hearing from you!

Thank you so much.
