

DIVERSITY and U.S. LEGAL HISTORY SERIES

Social Movements and Social Change in Twentieth Century America

— a talk by —

Tomiko Brown-Nagin

Daniel P.S. Paul Professor of Constitutional Law

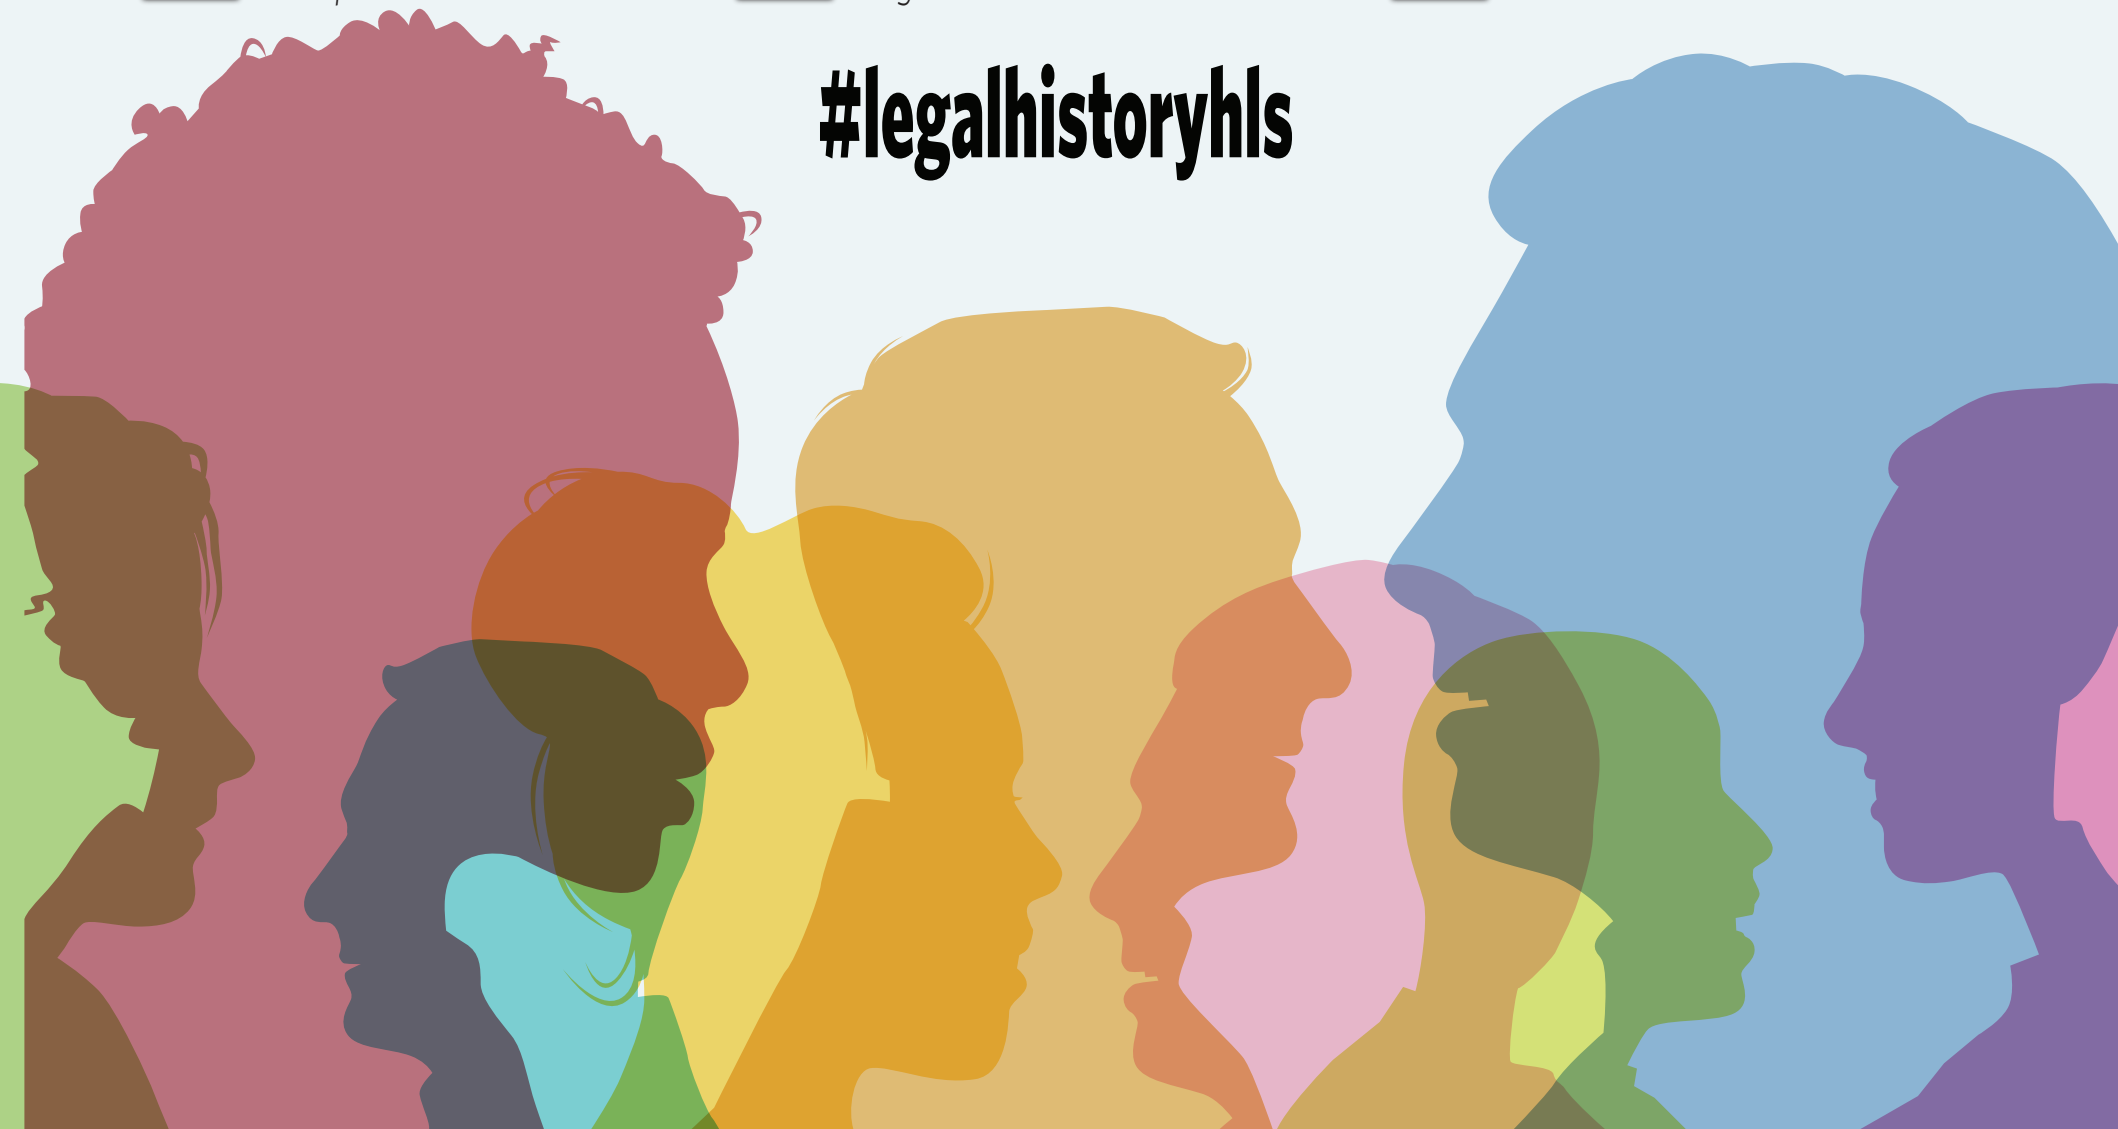

Wednesday, November 2, 2016 at 12 pm

WCC 1010, Harvard Law School

Series Overview

- | | | | | | |
|------------------|--|------------------|--|------------------|--|
| SEP
7 | Joseph Singer
Federal Indian Law | SEP
28 | Rachel Moran
Liminal Latinos | OCT
19 | Katherine Franke
Reparations |
| SEP
14 | Randall Kennedy
Desegregation of Medicine | OCT
3 | Michael Klarman
Race in American History | OCT
26 | Annette Gordon-Reed
Race Making in Early America |
| SEP
21 | John S.W. Park
Unlawful Children in American Law | OCT
5 | Diana Eck
Religious Pluralism | NOV
16 | Kenneth Mack
The 14th Amendment |

#legalhistoryhls

Presented by the Office of the Dean in collaboration with Professor Mark Tushnet's reading group

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

If you or an event participant requires disability-related accommodations, please contact Accessibility Services in the Dean of Students Office in advance of the event.