

International Catacomb Society

Bridging Disciplines • Supporting Scholarship • Connecting the Public

Public Symposium

Saturday, September 26, 2015

9:30am – 2:00pm

Ruane Center for the Humanities
Providence College

9:00: Registration and Coffee

9:30: Welcome

Joan R. Branham, Associate Dean, School of Arts and Sciences,
Providence College

9:40-11:10: Session 1

(moderator: Annewies van den Hoek, Harvard University)

Arthur Urbano (Providence College):

"Wisdom Made Visible: Iconography and the Fashioning of Philosophical Culture in Late Antiquity"

Nicola Denzey Lewis (Brown University & Princeton University):

"Catacomb Religion: Uncovering Ordinary Christianity in the Centuries Before and After Constantine"

Discussion

11:10-11:30: Coffee Break

11:30-13:00: Session 2

(moderator: Robin M. Jensen, University of Notre Dame)

John R. Levison (Southern Methodist University):

"The Historical Roots of Early Christian Pneumatology"

Lee M. Jefferson and Thomas McCollough (Centre College):

"The Christian Veneration Complex at Khirbet Qana"

Discussion

Reception to follow in the Great Room

Co-sponsored by the School of Arts & Sciences, the Center for Catholic and Dominican Studies, and the Jewish-Catholic Theological Exchange

© Annewies van den Hoek