

The Legacy of 1968

Conference Program

10 Welcome remarks

10.15 - 11.45 Panel 1: The Global Sixties

Martin Klimke “The Global Sixties”
Associate Professor of History, New York University Abu Dhabi

Quinn Slobodian “Germany's 1968 and Its Enemies”
Associate Professor of History, Wellesley College

Discussant: Beatrice Wayne
Lecturer, History and Literature, Harvard University

12 – 1 Lunch break

1- 2.30 Panel 2: Political Legacies of 1968

Timothy Brown “What's Left? The Political Meaning of 1968”
Professor of History, Northeastern University

Ali Jones “Politics of the Self: Self Determination and Autonomist Subjectivity”
Affiliated Lecturer, University of Cambridge

Discussant: Charity Scribner

2.30 – 3 Coffee break

3 - 4.30 Panel 3: Intellectual Legacies of 1968

Sandrine Sanos ““The War Machine” of Language: Monique Wittig's One-Dimensional Man and Post '68 Feminist Thought”
Associate Professor of Modern European History, Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi

Charity Scribner “Another Berliner Kindheit: Reflections on Education and Authority, 1968-2018”
Associate Professor, Literature, City University of New York

Discussant: Timothy Brown

4.30 – 5 Coffee break

5 – 6 Keynote

Julian Bourg “Time, Politics and Theory After 1968”
Associate Professor of History, Boston College